

From the Desk of Mat Staver:

I want to peel back the "onion" on the unprecedented level of hate that is being directed at our President from seemingly all sides.

In all my years of engaging the political and legal processes, I have never seen the level of vitriol and animosity against a political figure that we are experiencing today against our President. Granted, President Trump is far from perfect! In re-writing how a president communicates his message, President Trump has shocked people from across the political spectrum.

Why they really hate President Trump

But let's be clear: those tweets are not why they hate President Trump....

The extreme and unprecedented hatred being directed at President Trump is not the result of his unorthodox style. Rather, the animosity is based almost entirely on their fear of President Trump's pro-faith, pro-family, and pro-life agenda!

Despite all the controversy, it can be argued that President Trump has already done more in his first seven months in support of faith, family, and life than any other president in modern history.

Just days ago, President Trump rocked the political world by announcing that the U.S. government will not allow so-called transgender people "to serve in any capacity in the U.S. military" — reversing the Obama policy that fully integrated so-called transgenders in the military and even required taxpayers to pay for transgender hormone therapy, counseling, and body mutilating plastic surgery.

President Trump has also been unashamedly pro-life. Consider these actions by the President:

- Signed a new law allowing states to defund Planned Parenthood
- Restored the "Mexico City" policy prohibiting taxpayer funded abortions overseas
- Nominated conservative Justice Neil Gorsuch, who will not legislate from the bench
- Defunded a U.N. agency due to "forced abortion" policies
- Made several strong pro-life appointments and had Vice President Pence address the annual March For Life

President Trump understands people of faith are "under siege."

The President has also invited key faith leaders to the Oval Office for prayer, and is openly addressing key issues on religious liberties, as in this recent speech to Evangelical leaders:

"We will always support our Evangelical community, and defend your right, and the right of all Americans, to follow and to live by the teachings of their faith. And as you know, we're under siege. You understand that. But we will come out bigger and better and stronger than ever."

Is President Trump perfect? Far from it! But he has boldly and aggressively pursued the strongest pro-faith, pro-family, and pro-life agenda that we have seen in recent years. And this is why they despise President Trump and are doing everything possible to destroy him. They fear his agenda. Specifically, they are outraged that President Trump is supporting and implementing pro-faith, pro-family, and pro-life initiatives across his administration.

But the fact is, the anti-Trump crowd is screaming so loudly that at times it seems that there is no support for President Trump and his agenda. This is one of the reasons we see members of Congress running in fear, unable to even repeal ObamaCare! The anti-Trump crowd hates President Trump because they fear his pro-faith, pro-family, and pro-life agenda. President Trump is putting the needs of the American family first and the far-left is outraged! That's why they are trying to destroy his presidency. And they may succeed, if patriots like us remain silent. I want to rally at least 50,000 citizens to sign this important "Vote Of Confidence" this month so we can deliver this message to President Trump before Congress re-convenes in September.

Join with me by signing Liberty Counsel Action's "Vote Of Confidence" in President Trump and his pro-faith, pro-family, and pro-life agenda. For more information, you can visit the website at <https://www.lc.org/>
