

Learning at a Balanced Church

Every local church ought to be equally addressing several vital areas of Christian experience without focusing on just one or two areas. We'll start today with "Learning."

To grow as a church body, we all need the following:

- 1) Vital learning experiences—we need doctrine.
- 2) Vital worshipping experiences—we need to honor God.
- 3) Vital Fellowshiping experiences—we need relationships.
- 4) Vital Witnessing experiences—we need to evangelize.

*We need to grasp the importance of getting God's Word is us.
2 Pt. 2:2, 2 Tim. 3:16,17, Col. 3:1, Js. 1:22-25, Mtt. 4:4

*We need to have God's Word getting into us in different ways.
This means at home, in small groups, Sunday service / school.
Those downplaying God's Word can expect a declining church.

*We need to have God's Word modeled for us to see.
This is best done one on one or in group discipleship.
Those more mature examples act as patterns for the younger.
