The Rotten King

II Kgs. 21:1-18

The Repentant King

II Chron. 33:11-14

... after him there was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among those who were before him (18:5).

Manasseh's idolatry

Surely at the command of the LORD it came upon Judah, to remove them from His sight because of the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done.

II Kgs. 24:3

I will make them an object of horror among all the kingdoms of the earth because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, the king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

Jer. 15:4

Therefore the LORD brought the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria against them, and they captured Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze chains and took him to Babylon.

When he was in distress, he entreated the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

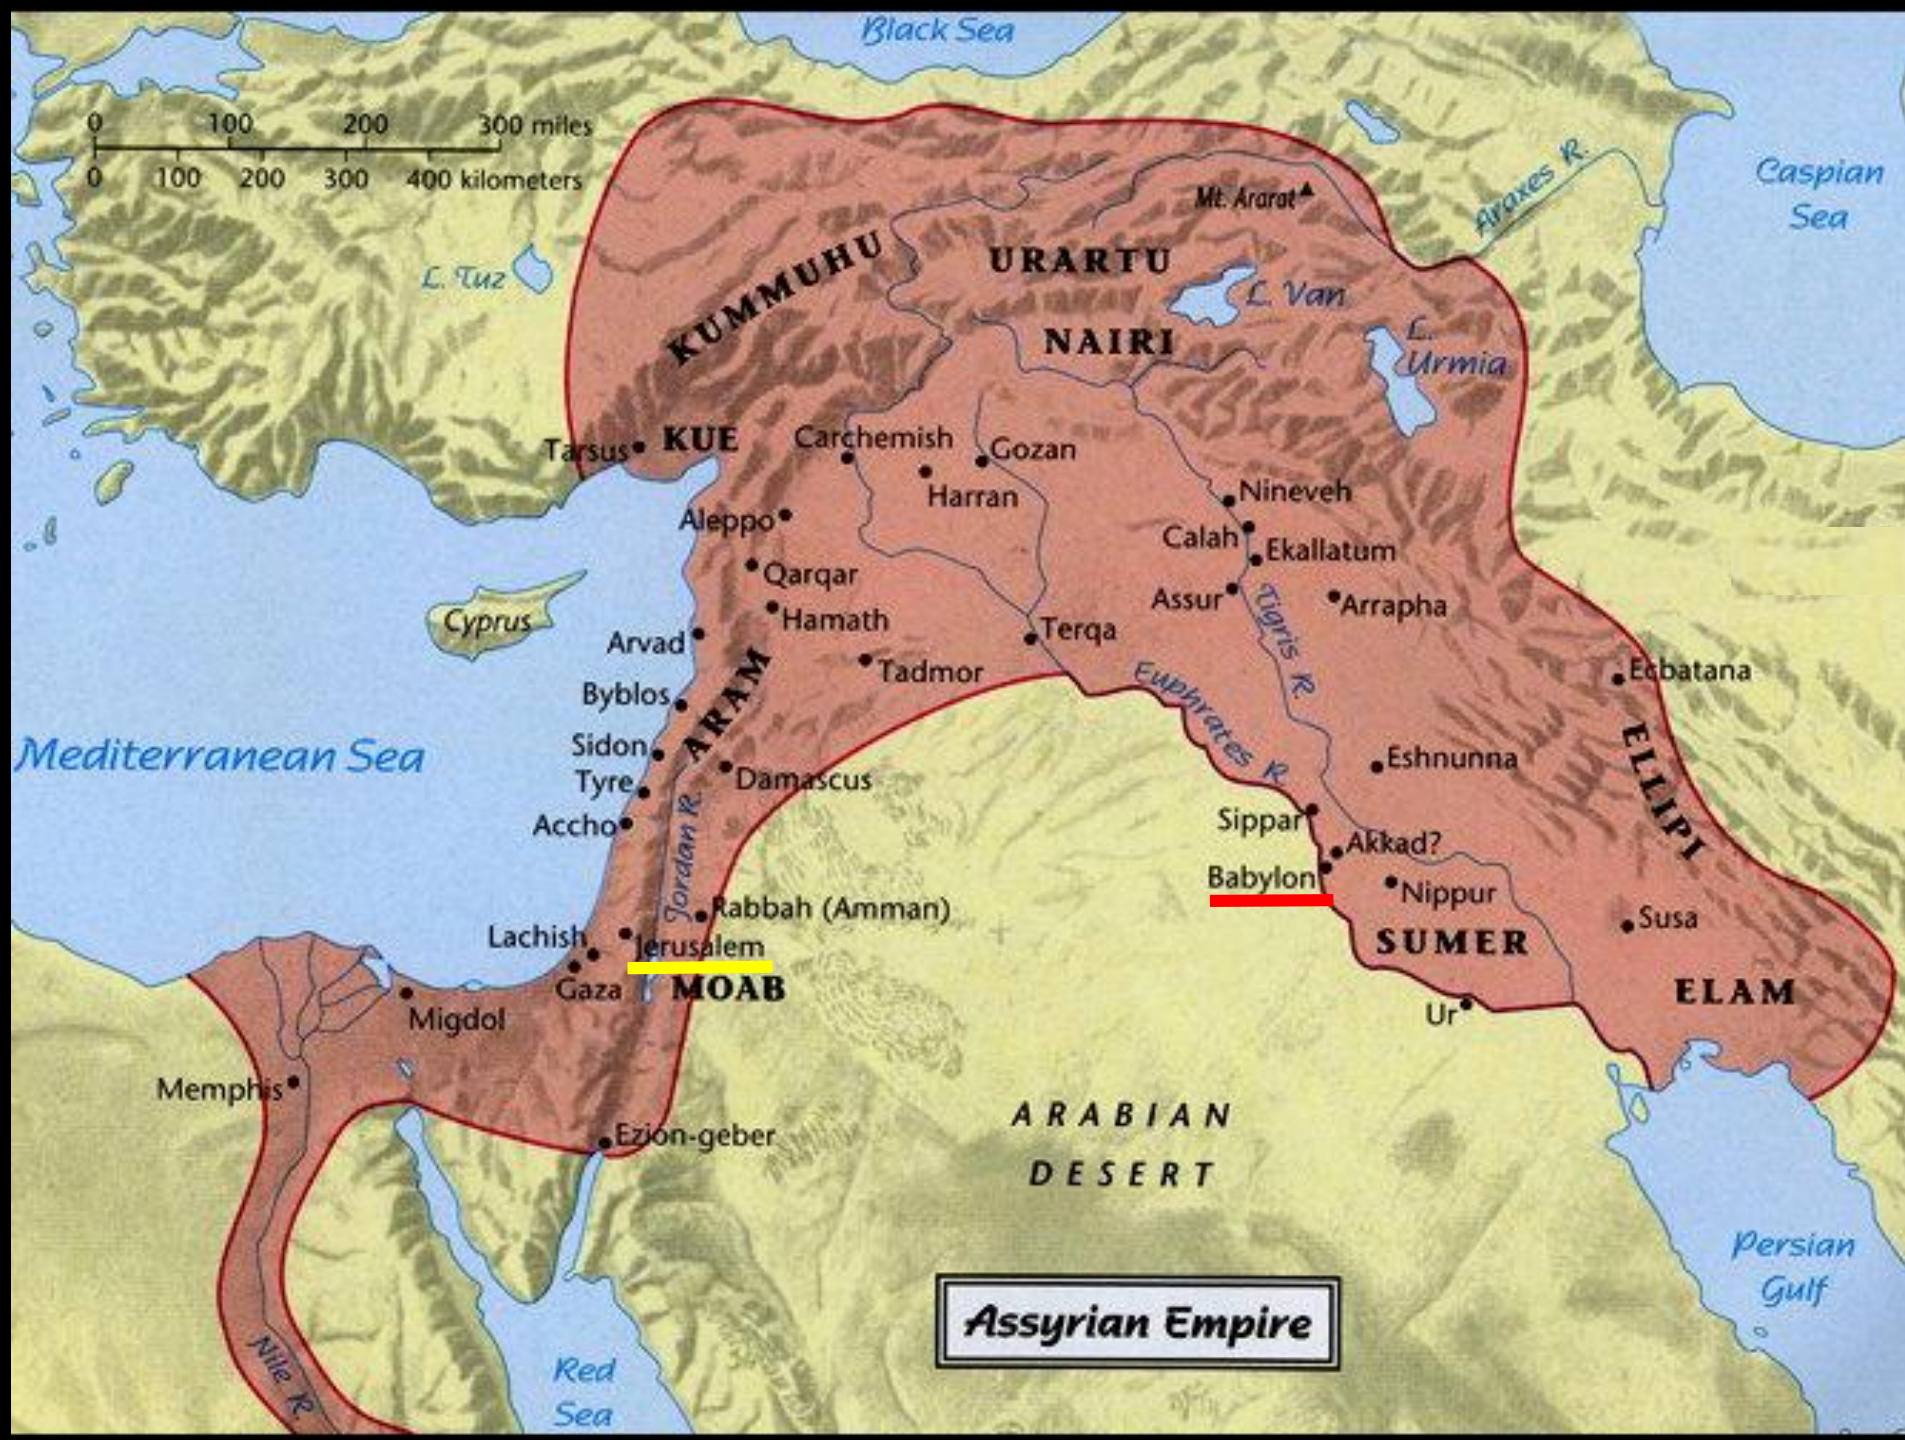

When he prayed to Him, He was moved by his entreaty and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.

II Chron. 33:11-13

Therefore the LORD brought the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria against them, and they captured Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze chains and took him to Babylon.

II Chron. 33:11

Ashurbanipal, 668-662

*When he was in distress,
he entreated the LORD
his God and humbled himself greatly before
the God of his fathers.
When he prayed to Him,
He was moved by his entreaty and heard his supplication and brought him again to Jerusalem to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.*

II Chron. 33:15,16

Jailhouse religion—finding God when your in a crisis

He also removed the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, as well as all the altars which he had built on the mountain of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem, and he threw them outside the city. He set up the altar of the LORD and sacrificed peace offerings and thank offerings on it; and he ordered Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

II Chron. 33:15,16
