ANNOUNCEMENTS

ABOUT OUR GUEST SPEAKER

Samuel Rood grew up in an intermarried Messianic Jewish home where he was raised to follow Jesus as well as to honor his Jewish heritage. He attended Biola University where he studied the Bible and theology, hoping to minister to Gentiles. After traveling to Israel, Sam surrendered to God's call to share the gospel with his own people. After graduating, he moved to New York City to do an internship with Jews for Jesus and soon after that he committed himself to missionary service. Sam and his wife, Rebekah, who also serves with Jews for Jesus, have a son and daughter and live in Brooklyn, New York.
